

RULES TO PREVENT RAGGING

Once students are admitted to the college they should observe the code of conduct necessary to maintain discipline and for the proper administration of the college. The

The following activities are treated as ragging:

1. Any act that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of a student
2. Exploiting the service of a junior student by a senior student or a group of senior students
3. Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a junior student including fund-raising for organisations
4. Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: annoying, playing practical jokes, sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts or gestures
5. Any act of abuse by spoken words, emails, SMS, or any other means
6. Any word or act that causes hurt to the dignity of the individual
7. Entering without permission any class other than the one assigned to a student
8. Forcing a student to boycott class without his/her consent to participate in strike, demonstration, dharna etc.

Reporting Cases of Ragging

The complaints or information in regard to ragging could be oral or written and even from third parties. The burden/responsibility of proving his/her innocence rests with the accused. Complaints can be lodged with the Principal, Staff Counsellors or any of the members of the Ragging Prevention Committee. All complaints / information received shall be kept strictly confidential.

In the event of a student being booked in a criminal offence and being suspended from the college, he / she will be re-instated only after his/her obtaining clearance certificate from the concerned police officer.

The students who are seeking admission to govt law college should sign a declaration in the following form.
